The Student Ambassador Program

The UQ ITEE Ambassador Program provides an excellent opportunity for current undergraduate students to share their knowledge and experiences of transitioning from school to university with secondary students.

Student Ambassadors represent UQ ITEE at a wide range of on and off-campus events including TSXPO and Open Day.

Who should apply?

The EAIT Faculty employs a team of up to 100 friendly, proactive and reliable ambassadors, selected from a variety of schools and programs, based on the following:

- Male and female 1st to 4th year UQ ITEE undergraduate students
- Ability to interact, relate to and inspire prospective students
- Desire to share their positive experiences as a UQ student
- Excellent interpersonal, communication and public speaking skills

What will I get out of it?

Becoming a UQ ITEE Ambassador will enable you to:

- Develop your public speaking and communication skills
- Enhance your networking and interpersonal skills at various events throughout the year
- Get involved in campus life and experience all the great things that UQ ITEE has to offer
- Get some cash! Some of the events you assist with during the year will be paid, others will be voluntary, but all of them will be great fun
- Receive references and recognition for your contribution to UQ

How to apply

If you are interested in applying to become an ambassador for UQ EAIT, please submit an application at www.surveymonkey.com/s/EAITSA2014

If successful, you will receive an email to notify you of any upcoming events and opportunities.